E.J. KRAUSE & ASSOCIATES ANNOUNCE LAUNCH OF SOUTHEAST ASIA NONWOVENS EXPO

BETHESDA, MD (September 12, 2018) – E.J. Krause & Associates is pleased to announce the launch of Southeast Asia Nonwovens and Disposable Hygiene Technology Exhibition & Conference (ANDTEX). The three-day event will take place May 15-17, 2019, at Bangkok International Trade and Exhibition Center (BITEC) in Thailand.

ANDTEX is set to be Southeast Asia's premier event for the nonwovens and engineered fabrics industry. The event will showcase a wide variety of nonwovens, engineered materials, disposable and durable hygiene products, equipment, and the latest manufacturing technologies.

The nonwoven industry is one of the fastest growing industries in the world. Innovations in nonwoven fabrics are growing rapidly, which in turn is increasing demand and generating new product enhancements and functionality in virtually every industry sector.

“Southeast Asia’s market potential for the nonwovens and hygiene industry continues to expand. There is major opportunity for development. Consumer demand is rising, and technological innovations, reliability and quality issues are shaping the market creating a multitude of new business development opportunities within the region.” said organizer Ned Krause, CEO of E.J. Krause & Associates

ANDTEX will provide a platform to facilitate business and promote the latest cutting-edge technology in engineered materials. The event will bring together suppliers, manufacturers, researchers, machinery and equipment providers, vendors, and all others involved in the industry.
